Tom Fischl

Dear Tom:

This is to put in writing that I need to collect the rest of the $125.00 for this week. You have paid $40.00 so it does leave a balance of $85.00.

As you are aware, Bob is paying $125.00 per week. You have until this weekend to pay the balance and start paying weekly. A friend of mine has a fellow that can move in in one week. I hate to kick you out but now it is my survival. I cannot take care of others when I need to take care of myself.

If you cannot pay the $125.00, I expect you to be out by the weekend.

Rentals are in demand as you can see by my neighbors being continually booked.

Thanks.

Sharon
